Rosewood to Debut in Tokyo with Landmark Roppongi 5-Chome Project

Mori Building and Sumitomo Realty & Development select Rosewood to anchor project's hospitality offerings

Tokyo, May 15, 2026 — Mori Building Co., Ltd. and Sumitomo Realty & Development Co., Ltd. announced today that they have selected Rosewood as the hotel operator for the Roppongi 5-Chome West District Category 1 Urban Redevelopment Project (Roppongi 5-Chome Project), marking Rosewood's debut in the Tokyo market.

Crowning top floors of 330-meter main tower

Rosewood, the operator of an ever-evolving global collection of hotels, resorts and residences, currently manages 43 properties in 25 countries. As the brand's first foray into Tokyo, Rosewood Tokyo will occupy the top floors of the 330-meter main tower of the Roppongi 5-Chome Project. Soaring above the 16,000-square-meter "urban forest" landscaping surrounding the building, Rosewood Tokyo will offer an attractive blend of cultural inspiration and tranquil healing within the heart of Tokyo.

In addition to some 200 guest rooms, the development will feature a variety of restaurants, banquet halls and a spa. The Roppongi 5-Chome Project will also introduce event halls and conference facilities that Rosewood Tokyo will seamlessly integrate with for enhanced meetings, incentives, conferences and exhibitions (MICE) in the centrally located Roppongi area of Tokyo.

Shingo Tsuji, President and CEO of Mori Building, said: "We are delighted to welcome Rosewood to Tokyo through this partnership, which fulfills Rosewood's long-held goal of expanding into the city. Roppongi 5-chome is an ideal location for this endeavor, which will create new value in Tokyo's luxury market and boost the city's global competitiveness."

Kojun Nishima, President of Sumitomo Realty & Development Co., Ltd., commented: "We are thrilled to partner with Rosewood to create exceptional value through the Roppongi 5-Chome Project, a landmark development that symbolizes the future of Tokyo. We are confident that Rosewood's distinctive vision and legendary hospitality will help transform the project into a one-of-a-kind global destination that captivates the world."

Sonia Cheng, Chief Executive Officer of Rosewood Hotel Group, said: "We are excited to introduce Rosewood Tokyo, a strategic expansion that reinforces our commitment in Japan. Guided by our A Sense of Place philosophy, Rosewood Tokyo will celebrate the city's cultural depth while delivering distinctive, locally rooted experiences in one of the world's most influential global capitals."
