

Mori Building to Extend Temporary Closure of Affiliated Facilities

Tokyo, March 13, 2020 — Mori Building announced today that it will extend the temporary closure of its affiliated facilities until Thursday, March 19 to help prevent the spread of coronavirus (COVID-19). The facilities listed below were originally planned to be temporarily closed from Saturday, February 29 to Friday, March 13, 2020.

During the closure period, all events scheduled in each facility have been cancelled, and museum shops, souvenir shops, cafes and restaurants in each facility have also been closed. The company will then determine plans for possible reopening based on the evolving situation.

Facility	Closure period
Mori Art Museum	Sat., February 29 to Thu., March 19, 2020
Tokyo City View (observation decks)	Sat., February 29 to Thu., March 19, 2020
Mori Arts Center Gallery	Sat., February 29 to Thu., March 19, 2020
MORI Building DIGITAL ART MUSEUM: teamLab Borderless	Sat., February 29 to (end date to be decided)*

*MORI Building DIGITAL ART MUSEUM: teamLab Borderless, wishing to avoid inconveniencing the many foreign guests who come to Japan mainly to visit the museum, is suspending sales of advance tickets and will not announce the end date of the temporary closure until the situation becomes clearer.
