

Mori Building Employee Test Positive for COVID-19

Tokyo, January 15, 2021 — Mori Building announced today that an employee working in the company's main office in Roppongi Hills Mori Tower, Minato-ku, Tokyo tested positive for COVID-19 on January 14.

The employee is in a stable condition and currently recuperating at home. The office area where the employee was working has been disinfected and sanitized.

Mori Building continues to work with public health authorities and other relevant organizations in addition to taking all necessary measures to prevent the spread of COVID-19 and assure the safety of its work environments.

International Media Inquiries

Public Relations, Mori Building Co., Ltd.

Tel +81 (0)3-6406-6606 Fax +81 (0)3-6406-9306

E-mail koho@mori.co.jp

Mori Building Employee Test Positive for COVID-19

Tokyo, January 14, 2021 — Mori Building announced today, that an employee working in the company's main office in Roppongi Hills Mori Tower, Minato-ku, Tokyo, tested positive for COVID-19 on January 14.

The employee is in a stable condition and currently recuperating at home. The office area where the employee was working has been disinfected and sanitized.

Mori Building continues to work with public health authorities and other relevant organizations in addition to take all necessary measures to prevent the spread of COVID-19 and assure the safety of its work environments.

International Media Inquiries

Public Relations, Mori Building Co., Ltd.

Tel +81 (0)3-6406-6606 Fax +81 (0)3-6406-9306

E-mail koho@mori.co.jp

Mori Building Employee Test Positive for COVID-19

Tokyo, December 9, 2020 — Mori Building announced today, that an employee working in the company's main office in Roppongi Hills Mori Tower, Minato-ku, Tokyo, tested positive for COVID-19 on December 8.

The employee is in a stable condition and currently recuperating at home. There are no colleagues who have had close contact with the employee in the workplace, as determined by public health authorities. In addition, the office area where the employee was working has been disinfected and sanitized.

Mori Building continues to work with public health authorities and other relevant organizations in addition to take all necessary measures to prevent the spread of COVID-19 and assure the safety of its work environments.

International Media Inquiries

Public Relations, Mori Building Co., Ltd.

Tel +81 (0)3-6406-6606 Fax +81 (0)3-6406-9306

E-mail koho@mori.co.jp

Mori Building Employee Test Positive for COVID-19

Tokyo, November 27, 2020 — Mori Building announced today, that an employee working in the company's main office in Roppongi Hills Mori Tower, Minato-ku, Tokyo, tested positive for COVID-19 on November 26.

The employee is in stable condition and currently recuperating at home. Colleagues who had close contact with the employee in the workplace, as determined by public health authorities, have been placed on standby at their respective homes. In addition, the office area where the employee was working has been disinfected and sanitized.

Mori Building continues to work with public health authorities and other relevant organizations in addition to take all necessary measures to prevent the spread of COVID-19 and assure the safety of its work environments.

International Media Inquiries

Public Relations, Mori Building Co., Ltd.

Tel +81 (0)3-6406-6606 Fax +81 (0)3-6406-9306

E-mail koho@mori.co.jp